INDEPENDENT INSURANCE BROKERS
SERVING EDINBURGH & BEYOND

Glenavon Insurance offers a high quality independent insurance brokerage service to those looking for cover either in their professional or home life. From our base in Edinburgh we offer a dedicated service to see clients through their policy from the moment they get in touch to any claim settlements.

WITH THIS FREEDOM,
WE CAN ADAPT POLICIES
TO SUIT OUR CLIENTS

EXPERIENCED

Established in 2009 Glenavon Insurance's collective bank of experience exceeds over 50 years thanks to the input of our expert team of brokers. Supported by up-to-the-minute technology, each one of our advisors applies their wealth of experience and diligence to ensure that they are offering our clients an insurance package that's relevant to them, alongside the outstanding service that is ingrained in the ethos of our business.

INDEPENDENT

As an independent insurance broker, our loyalties remain with our clients at all stages of their policy. We will advise on products that are suitable to create a policy which only contains relevant cover. Furthermore, we're not limited to one insurer – far from it. As a member of Broker Network, we can tap into the products of a wide range of well-established UK insurers, including those in the London market. With this freedom, we can adapt policies to suit our clients. Of course we don't presume that cost does not play a part when choosing insurance, which is why we endeavour to get a competitive premium for all the policies we arrange.

DEDICATED

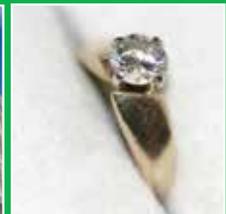

Our purpose as an insurance broker is to support our clients financially, and make their lives easier at times of heightened stress, such as when they need to make an insurance claim. The only way that we can fulfil this purpose is by making sure that this support is available at every step of the policy arrangement.

We ensure this by assigning an account handler to all clients, whether they are looking for commercial or personal insurance. This account handler will discuss their requirements in depth so as to arrange a policy that is fit for purpose, act as an intermediary with the insurer in the event of a claim, and review the policy on an annual basis, making any necessary amendments to maintain protection that continues to offer value for money.

WHAT WE COVER

Our services stretch from personal to commercial, with policies around the following:

- Manufacturing, Construction and Engineering
